Code of Conduct

The East Henderson Eagles has a “ZERO TOLERANCE” policy for all athletes and parents.

- Any action or behavior that can be seen as a threat to anybody else will result in immediate dismissal, and possible legal action taken.
- All children including those that are participating, and those that are observing must be properly supervised at all times, when not engaging in team sponsored events or activities.
(This means all children must be with in arms reach of their parent at all times when not engaged in team activities.)
- All participants will take all directions from East Henderson football and cheerleading Association Staff and volunteers. Any refusal of direction may result in the participant not playing during the following game, or dismissal if deemed necessary
- Any form of disrespect toward another person while attending any EHYF events or activates will result in correction action being taken. This action is to be determined by any official from the East Henderson Youth Football and Cheerleading Association.
- Foul language is not accepted. Use of foul language while attending any event or activates will result in correction action to be taken, and may result in dismissal from the event.
- We understand parents want to be involved with their kid’s activities. This is why we are looking for volunteers for many positions with in the organization. If as a participants parent or guardian we ask that you only observe and do not get evolved with “helping” your child during practice. This is the coaches’ job to ensure your child participates in practice and events.
